Subject: Questions about a visit of your magic show

Dear Sir or Madam,

My name is Holger Mai, and I am from Konstanz, Germany. Next month your magic show will be in Konstanz, which is why I am writing to you. I attend Edith-Stein-Hauptschule in Konstanz. My 28 classmates and I would like to visit your show. We are all 15 years old.

Could you kindly give me some information about (a) the exact dates of your show, (b) ticket prices for teenagers and (c) discounts for large groups like ours? Moreover, could you let me know ~~how long~~ the duration of your show and whether we can buy food and drinks during the show.?

Thank you in advance for your help.

Yours sincerely,
HolgerMai

Part 2: A day with your best friend

On the first day of our summer holidays last year my best friend Lena and I went to a huge amusement park near Cleebornn. We particularly enjoyed the rides on the "Karacho" roller coaster, which includes a number of tight turns and steep slopes as well as four loops. We spent the whole day in the park and we also bought some snacks and drinks there. We were about to leave the park when Lena decided to buy an ice cream cone. - While walking around the corner of the ice cream stall, Lena bumped into a young man. Her ice cream fell onto the man's shirt. Fortunately, the man was not angry because it was not really anybody's fault. We all laughed our heads off and said sorry to one another. The trip to the park was definitely one of the most exciting things I did last year.

Part 2: Holidays with your best friend

You: I think, it's great that we are going on holiday together.

Friend: You're right, but I have some more questions. First of all, where can we go?

You: Well, as we are only 15 years old, we can only go to a place we can easily reach by bike or by train.

Friend: What about going to Lake Constance? We could take the train to Friedrichshafen. Most trains have bicycle racks, so we could take along our own bikes.

You: That sounds great. We could cycle around the whole lake.

Friend: Well, the lake is big, so we cannot cycle around it in one day. We would have to stop over several times to put up our tent and spend the night there.

You: That's a good idea because campsites are much cheaper than hostels or hotels.

Friend: What is more, at campsites you can always get to know other teenagers quite easily. So we could have campfires and barbecues with them, for example.

You: I like that plan very much. Let's just do it.
