D. Text Production

1. Your dream vacation

My dream is to travel to Kyoto, Japan one day. This historic city is famous for its stunning temples and traditional tea houses. Also, the cherry blossoms look awesome in spring, and they paint the landscape pink. I would love to explore the bamboo groves there and see the different Shrines that are so different to religious symbols in my culture. I would like to share this experience with my closest friend or friends. Me and my friends are the biggest Japan fans in the world and together with them this vacation might become unforgettable.

2. What is the story behind the picture?

You don't have to stay inside even if it's raining. Me and my friends had the time of our lives. Emily was dancing through the rain, spinning her red umbrella above her head. Tom carried a blue umbrella – he was using it as a parachute. Kyle and Jake tried to dance in perfect sync, the rain splashing around their feet. They didn't mind. After finishing our rainy dancing party, we all went to this cosy café at the corner, drinking hot chocolate or tea.
