D. Text Production

Superhero

My superhero is a snow-white owl that always sits on my shoulder. I can see it but it is invisible to everyone else. It has two magical powers. First, it can transport me to any place on this planet within minutes. Second, its brain is like a supercomputer because it can answer almost any question. In dangerous or unpleasant situations it can just fly me somewhere else. And at school it helps me to get the best marks in every subject.

Write a text about the picture.

A woman, her teenage son and her young daughter are lying on a set of linked chairs in an airport building. They are all asleep, with both the mother's and daughter's heads resting on pillows and the son lying on his mother's legs. There are some bags, toys and snacks on and around the chairs. The woman and her children are probably waiting for the call to board a plane taking them to a holiday destination. Probably boarding for their flight will soon be announced and they will walk to their gate.
